Community Development Update

Global Volunteer Month

Each April, Freeport-McMoRan employees companywide celebrate giving back to communities through volunteer service. This year, employees were encouraged to volunteer in socially distanced activities, including making masks and sending letters to senior centers.

At Ajo, employees participated in the company's 18th annual Global Volunteer Month by helping to off-load food boxes for the Ajo COVID-19 Food Relief Program.

Our Commitment to Social Investing

In response to COVID-19, medical and non-medical supplies were procured and donated to healthcare facilities and first responders in our communities. A total of approximately 4,700 items were donated to hospitals and clinics across North America.

At Ajo, Freeport-McMoRan donated items such as Tyvek suits, goggles, face shields, wire racks and ice chests to Desert Senita Community Health Center.

Freeport-McMoRan convened chamber of commerce and economic development directors from our operating communities to discuss COVID-19 rural community response strategies, lessons learned and resources.

A coordination call was held with United Way CEOs in our operating communities to discuss COVID-19 response strategies and to offer an opportunity to learn and apply successful response strategies in other communities.

- We collaborated with United Way of Tucson and Southern Arizona, Child Parent Center (CPC), Sahuarita Food Bank and Ajo CSA to support the Ajo COVID-19 Food Relief Program
- United Way provided emergency support to the Ajo community through International Sonoran Desert Alliance (ISDA)

Freeport-McMoRan's partnership with Discovery Education supported schools as they transitioned to distance learning:

- Offered schools free access to STEM Connect – an interdisciplinary K-8 educational resource that can be accessed virtually
- www.DigIntoMining.com and other open-source virtual resources were shared with educational partners

Ajo operations was proud to partner on the following initiatives and projects in first quarter 2020:

- Ajo Community Golf Course – 41st Annual Fiddlers Contest
- Desert Senita Health Center – Annual Fall Festival
- Cabeza Priety Natural History Association – 6th Tri-National Symposium celebrating the Sonoran Desert
- Arizona Youth Partnership – Substance Abuse Prevention and Education
