Miami operations has responded to two community grievances in the last quarter. Topics of concern included:

- Poppies being cut along the Freeport-McMoRan fenceline in Claypool with weed debris and trash left behind
- Patullo Quarry activity schedule

Freeport-McMoRan has published a Working Toward Sustainable Development \(WTSD\) report annually since 2001. This 2018 WTSD report is meant to provide stakeholders with summary information on our sustainability programs, including policies, management systems and performance data. Community engagement and development is part of our company's culture and, since 2007, we have invested more than $2 billion in social programs and projects. Currently, we are prioritizing our community investments on the development of skills for our workforce and community members. We want to empower people and communities with the skills and opportunities to construct meaningful futures.

Miami Operations: Economic Impact Report

The company commissioned the L. William Seidman Research Institute at Arizona State University to develop annual economic impact reports. Freeport-McMoRan's Miami operations generated an estimated $74.8 million in economic benefits for Gila County and approximately $220.7 million for Arizona in 2018. Miami operations employs almost 900 people and the ripple effect of wages and taxes plus services we purchase creates another 1,400 jobs in the state.

Freeport-McMoRan ranks No. 16 on Indeed's Top-Rated Workplace List!

What do our employees have to say about us?

- "Great company to work for. They make you feel part of a team."
- "Equal opportunity for women to succeed ... Great pay and benefits!"
- "The company stresses safety above everything else."

This sampling of 5-star reviews on the Indeed career site showcases why the company earned the No. 16 spot for its 2019 Top 50 Top-Rated Workplaces award.

Community Development Update

The Freeport-McMoRan Foundation is committed to investing in communities where we have a presence through programs and projects that build community capacity.

- Women's Development Grant – Deadline to apply was September 30
- ASU Lodestar – FREE Capacity-building trainings

We are excited to share a partnership between Arizona College Access Network (AzCAN), Earn to Learn and the newly established AdviseAZ AmeriCorps program that will support Arizona's goal to Achieve60. Through embedded, well-trained advisors, this program's goal is to increase the number of high school students entering and completing postsecondary education.

The Freeport-McMoRan Foundation is providing funding for schools in our communities to take advantage of this opportunity.

Our Commitment to Social Investing

During the second quarter of 2019, Miami operations was proud to partner on the following initiatives and projects:

- City of Globe – structural engineering study for community center swimming pool
- Pinal Mountain Little League – annual program support
- Gila County Gem & Mineral Society – display lamp for mineral presentations

- San Carlos Apache Tribe – basketball courts, stampede rodeo, E-waste collection
- Miami Unified School District – girls basketball
- Globe Unified School District – robotics
- Pinal Mountain Lions Club – Education Appreciation Mixer

Economic Development Convening / Rural Policy Forum

Freeport-McMoRan recently convened rural leaders from across our North American locations who are working to establish strong and diverse economies in communities with a mining presence.

Strengthening Community Ecosystems

- Visioning
- Ecosystem Success through Creative District Development
- Rural Access to Capital and Micro-Loan Programs
- Defining Economic Development / Rural Challenges and Solutions

2019 Rural Policy Forum

The Freeport-McMoRan Foundation is proud to partner with the Gila County Historical Society on the renovation and upgrade of the museum building. In 2018, the Gila County Historical Museum received $40,000.

The Gila County Historical Museum is housed in a 100-year-old building, historically significant as the former Old Dominion Mine Rescue Station. The community priority and focus area for this project is Community and Economic Development: Increased Revenue Growth Through Tourism. The grant was used to renovate the garage and kitchen areas and the improvements have enhanced the attractiveness and usability of the building. Contractors, Ram Specialists and Kino Floors provided in-kind support and the project is now complete. The Museum has expanded its exhibits and hosted the second annual Old Dominion Days event September 11-14.
